

RCAP ADVISORY BOARD · 2026-27

WE ARE THE BRIDGE.

Advisory Board onboarding. Your voice, your class, one stronger RCAP.

SPEAKER NOTES

Welcome everyone and thank them for saying yes. Tonight is about what this board is, why it matters, and how we will work together. Keep it conversational. The goal is for every member to leave knowing their voice is wanted, not just their forward button.

WHO'S IN THE ROOM

A SEAT FOR EVERY CLASS.

CLASS OF 2027 Camille Cunningham	CLASS OF 2028 Sara White	CLASS OF 2029 Adriane Simpson	CLASS OF 2030 Sidonie Holloman	CLASS OF 2031 Will Wesley
--	---------------------------------------	---	--	--

Each of you speaks for a whole class of families. That is the job, and the honor.

SPEAKER NOTES

Quick round of introductions. Name, your child, and one word for how the year has started. Keep it light and moving.

EXECUTIVE BOARD VISION

WHERE WE'RE HEADED.

EVERY PARENT BELONGS

Every RCA parent is already an RCAP member. Our job is to make that felt.

DOORS OPEN TO ALL

Committee sign-ups are open to everyone. Leading last year does not mean leading this year.

BUILT TO LAST

Plans of work and event guides, so the next group can repeat what works.

SPEAKER NOTES

These three points come from decisions the Executive Board made at its first meetings. Talking point: RCAP is the opposite of a clique. The Advisory Board is how we make sure every class feels that.

OUR PURPOSE

ADVISE.
GUIDE.
SUPPORT.
ADVOCATE.

The Advisory Board is a thought partner to the Executive Board. You bring the perspective, feedback, ideas and support that make RCAP stronger.

For RCAP, for our parent community, and for the partnership between parents and RCA.

Rooted in the purpose and goals of the RCAP bylaws.

SPEAKER NOTES

The four verbs are the whole job: advise, guide, support, advocate. Emphasize thought partner. We are reinvigorating this board, and we want it to be active.

YOU ARE NOT JUST A MESSENGER.

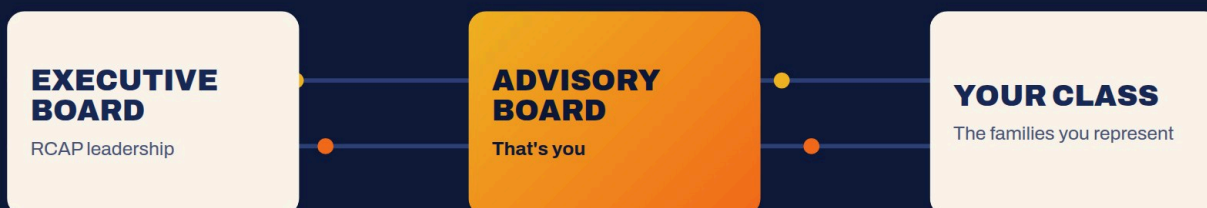

You are a representative, and a voice for your class.

SPEAKER NOTES

Sharing information with your class still matters. But this board is more than a communication channel. We want you to ask questions, share ideas, bring forward what you are hearing, and help make RCAP stronger.

THE TWO-WAY BRIDGE

INFORMATION FLOWS BOTH WAYS.

Out to your class: information, updates, opportunities, requests

Back to the board: questions, ideas, concerns, feedback

SPEAKER NOTES

Executive Board to Advisory Board to your class. And just as importantly, your class to Advisory Board to Executive Board. The gold dots are what we send out. The orange dots are what you bring back. Both directions matter equally.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

WHAT WE'RE ASKING OF YOU.

- 01 BE THE LIAISON
Share what the Executive Board sends. Bring back what your class says.
- 02 SHOW UP AND SPEAK UP
Come to meetings ready to engage. Your ideas, experiences and questions count.
- 03 ADVISE AND GIVE FEEDBACK
Be a sounding board. Ask questions and help us see what we might miss.
- 04 GROW PARENT ENGAGEMENT
Help families feel informed, connected and invited to take part.
- 05 SUPPORT RCAP GOVERNANCE
Step in when the Advisory Board is called on for its formal duties.

SPEAKER NOTES

Walk the five quickly; the next slides go deeper on the formal role. On number one: you are the two-way connection. On number two: participation is active, not a seat on a call. On number four: RCAP's goals include encouraging parents to be involved in their children's education and supporting classroom instruction and school programs.

A NOTE ON PARTICIPATION

PARTICIPATING DOESN'T MEAN ALWAYS AGREEING.

It means engaging thoughtfully and constructively in the work.

SPEAKER NOTES

This is permission. We want candor. Different perspectives help us think more broadly. Pause here and let it land.

THE FORMAL ROLE

A REAL VOICE IN REAL DECISIONS.

WHEN THE EXECUTIVE BOARD ASKS, YOU CAN

- Recommend and support policies and activities
- Initiate policy proposals
- Share your opinion on matters brought to you

WHEN GOVERNANCE CALLS, YOU MAY HELP WITH

- Nominations and elections
- Audit oversight
- Policy discussions and bylaw review
- Programs that enhance RCA's instruction

These responsibilities are established throughout the RCAP bylaws.

SPEAKER NOTES

This is where parents get a voice in decisions that affect the RCAP and RCA community. Not every item comes up every year. When one does, we will ask.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

IT WORKS BOTH WAYS.KEEP YOU INFORMED

Updates, meeting materials and a clear view of what's happening across RCAP.

SEEK YOUR PERSPECTIVE

We'll ask for your insight where your experience can shape our thinking.

MAKE SPACE FOR CANDOR

Honest, constructive feedback and different views are welcome here.

CLOSE THE LOOP

We'll follow up on your input and share where things landed.

SPEAKER NOTES

This is our side of the deal. If we ask for your input, you will hear back about what happened with it. Invite them to hold us to it.

WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE IN PRACTICE.

WHEN

the Executive Board sends something parents need to know

Share it with your class.

WHEN

several parents are asking you the same question

Bring it back to us.

WHEN

you hear an idea that could make an
RCAP activity better

Share it.

WHEN

parents have questions or concerns

Help their voices reach the right place.

WHEN

we're considering something that affects families

Help us see what we might be missing.

WHEN

something isn't clear to you

Ask. Other parents likely wonder too.

SPEAKER NOTES

Six everyday moments. The pattern: information goes out, questions and ideas come back, and when in doubt, ask. Next two slides let the group try it.

TRY IT · SCENARIO ONE

Three parents in your class chat ask the same question about Trunk or Treat. What do you do?

BRING IT BACK TO US.

When a few are asking, more are wondering. Your heads-up helps us answer everyone.

SPEAKER NOTES

Read the scenario and let someone answer before you click to reveal. Then click once to show the answer.

TRY IT · SCENARIO TWO

A parent shares an idea to make an RCAP event better, then says, "It's probably nothing." What do you do?

SHARE IT WITH THE BOARD.

Good ideas don't need a title. Carrying them in is what this room is for.

SPEAKER NOTES

Same move: let the group answer first, then click to reveal. If there is time, ask whether anyone has a real example from this year already.

IMPORTANT DATES · 2026-27

YOU'RE INVITED TO EVERY ONE.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Virtual · 8:00 PM

TUE	Nov 3	2026
TUE	Jan 12	2027

MON	Nov 16	Virtual
MON	Jan 25	Virtual
MON	Apr 26	In person at RCA Time TBD

Meeting links and details will be shared in advance.

SPEAKER NOTES

Advisory Board members are invited to Executive Board meetings too, not just the general body meetings. Encourage them to put these on their calendars tonight. April 26 is the in-person meeting at RCA.

YOUR TURN.

- 1 What are you hearing from your class right now?
- 2 What would help you do this role well?
- 3 How should we stay connected between meetings?

SPEAKER NOTES

Open the floor. This is the first loop to close: capture what you hear tonight and tell them at the next touchpoint what happened with it.

SPEAKER NOTES

Thank everyone. Close with the next date on the calendar and a reminder that questions do not have to wait for a meeting.
